

Minor in Foundations of Business (MBA Preparation)

21 units

The foundations of business (MBA prep) minor (<https://www.apu.edu/business/programs/foundations-business-minor/>) is for nonbusiness students who are interested in pursuing a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree after completing their bachelor's program.

Azusa Pacific University's School of Business and Management offers a customizable, Christ-centered MBA degree program that prepares ethical leaders capable of adapting to the changing business landscape. This program teaches the key concepts and skills, both analytical and relational, to be successful managers and leaders in business and society. This minor prepares students to enter into APU's MBA program or any other accredited MBA program after the completion of a bachelor's degree in a discipline outside of business.

No more than three courses in a student's major may count toward the foundations of business (MBA prep) minor.
