

Minor in Foundations of Management (MBM Preparation)

21 Units

The Foundations of Management (MBM Prep) minor (<https://www.apu.edu/business/programs/foundations-management-minor/>) is for nonbusiness students who are interested in pursuing a Master of Business Management degree (MBM) after completing their bachelor's program.

Azusa Pacific University's School of Business and Management offers a customizable, Christ-centered MBM that prepares ethical leaders capable of adapting to the changing business landscape. This master's in management program prepares students to become managers and leaders who can effectively motivate employees to exceed market expectations, improve competency levels and job performance, guide their organizations to invest in their workforce, and recruit, hire, and train the right individuals. Program graduates become experts in positively steering organizational change and creating a culture of teamwork.
